Song 1 (Reluctant Fisherman)

Trad.

[A]

Oh me dad was a fisherman bold

And he lived til he grew old. For...

For he'd open the panes & pop out the flame / Just to see how the wind do blow

And he'd often say to me

You'd be wise before you go. Do...

When the North wind rough do blow

Then I lay right smug below. But...

When the wind comes out of the East

It's no use to man nor beast. But...

East – wind out of the East

Poor Yosh wife – We'll regret if

When the wind's back in to the west

That'll come in rough at best. But...

North-wind & so West wind

A lady says / poor wife — You'll regret if

→ Fine wife

When the south wind soft do blow

Then there's not enough wind to go. Bu[t]...

And me poor wife says to me

We shall starve if you don't go. So...

(Are you mad – knew wouldn't get out of it) — spoken aside

North Wind
Royal Lady (not wife)
Poor wife – You will pay

Now all you fishermen bold
If you live till you grow old. Do...

Song 2 □ The Two Sisters (Oh the Wind & Rain)

TRAD. — Peggy Seeger / Bay Whitaker / Fates

Intro – our version

A B D
Twas early one morning in the month of May

Em A
Oh the wind and rain;

A D
Two sisters went fishing on a hot summer's day,

Em D A
CRYING Oh, the dreadful wind and rain.

A — section repeat label

A D Em – A
Two sweet sisters side by side / Oh...

A D Em – D – A
Both of them want to be Johnny's bride / Oh... CRYING a ~~Good~~ Good man's or: the same man's

Johnny tells older sister it's not her
→ Johnny gave the young one a fine gold ring / Oh... /
He then...
Didn't give the other one anything / Oh...

Two sweet sisters walking by the stream / Oh... /
One came behind & pushed the other one in / Oh...

She pushed her in to the river to drown / Oh... /
And watched her as she floated down / Oh...

She floated on down to the miller's pond. / Oh... /
 "Father, father, there comes a swan!" / Oh...
 straight to → "But it wasn't a swan" — then straight into next verse

The miller ran for his drifting hook / Oh... /
 And brought that poor girl from the brook / Oh...

He laid her on the bank so dry / Oh... /
 A fiddler man came walking by / Oh...
 both lines marked □ (possibly cut)

He saw that poor girl lying found me / buried there / Oh... / alt: "found me" / "buried" written above "saw that" / "lying"
 He took thirty strands of her long yellow hair / Oh...
 Fashioned from... And that's exactly what he did

He made a fiddle bow of her long yellow hair / Oh... /
 He made fiddle pegs of her little finger bones / Oh...

He made a fiddle of her little breast-bone / Oh... /
 With a sound that could melt a heart of stone / Oh...
 He used to play other fiddles — it would only play...

And the only tune that fiddle would play / Oh...
 The only tune that fiddle would play, was / Oh....
 song they'd sung together – older sister's face
Oh, the wind and rain.
The only tune that the fiddle would play, was oh the dreadful wind and rain
